To Whom It May Concern

On several occasions in 2004, I recall that I was given a complimentary promotional item, such as a clothing item or accessory with a logo printed on it. At no time did I solicit such items, and they were sent to my office without my prior knowledge or authorization. I did not retain possession of any of these items nor did any member of my family. I have no knowledge as to the value of the items, and do not recall the manufacturer or provider.

It is not conceivable that I received the benefits of a meal or refreshment from an individual who may be employed by a reportable entity under the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act, which I did not report because I do not have any records of these encounters and have no specific recollection of any benefits received.
